

UNIFORM PROCESS

ARRIVAL IN INCORRECT UNIFORM

If a student arrives at school in incorrect uniform, they must report to their Dean before school and collect a replacement item or a uniform pass.

CONSEQUENCES OF INCORRECT UNIFORM

If a teacher finds a student wearing an incorrect item, the teacher will ask the student to remove the item. The teacher will issue a lunch-time reflection. The item will be stored securely in the Student Office until the end of the school day.

FAILURE TO COMPLY

If a student is defiant and refuses to remove or hand over the item, a senior leader will be called. In such circumstances, further disciplinary action will be taken.
